

Children's Daily Sign In Sheets

Children's daily forms are a great way for children to sign in each morning, practice writing their name and preparing for kindergarten.

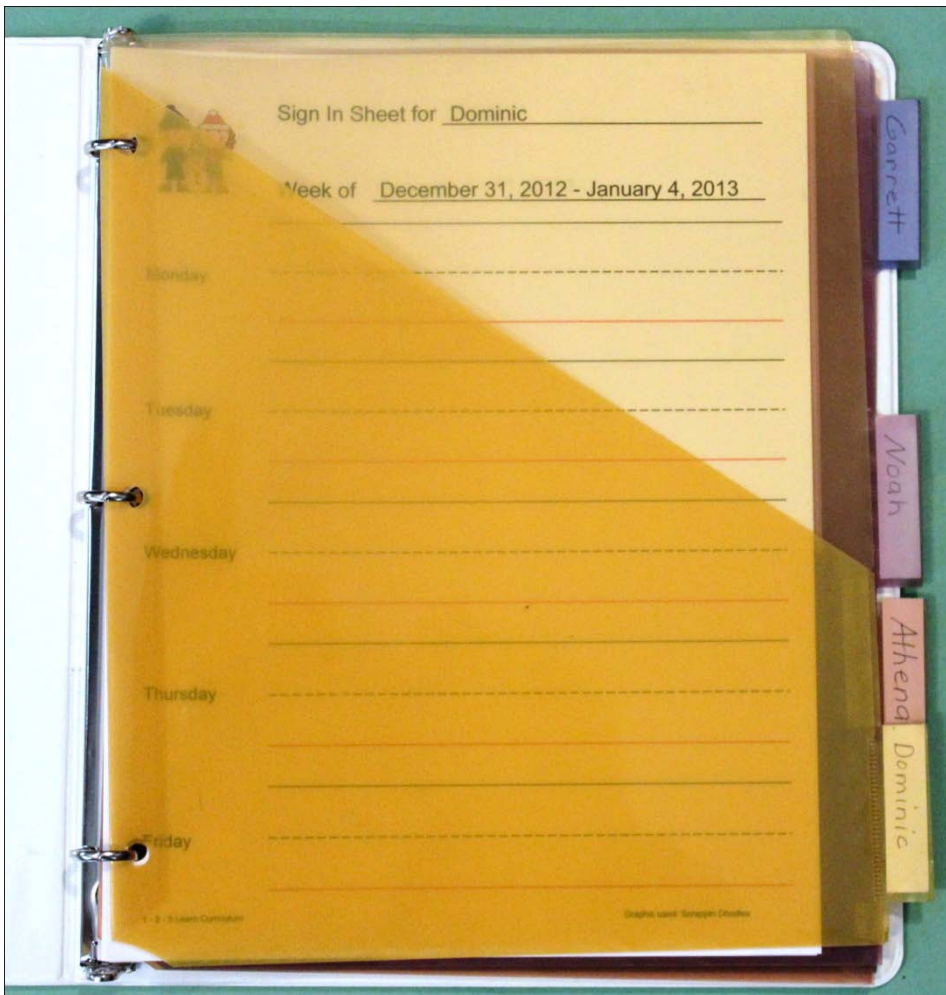

- You have the option of printing up a blank sign in sheet - no graphic, or using the monthly templates with graphics.
- Following are pictures showing the templates (January) being used. You can use a 3 - ring binder or a click board for each child.

Supplies needed:

- 3 ring binder
- file dividers

1. Print up template for the front of your sign in book.
2. Print up a month's worth of sign in sheets for each child.
You can type directly onto each form. (Add name and week)
3. Using a 3 hole punch, punch holes in the left side of each sign in form, and add to 3 - ring binder.
4. Place a file divider in front of each child's sign in forms, with their name in the tab.
